

You scream, I scream ...
Spread joy with black fig
goat's milk ice cream p78

Opening Remarks

6

The debt problems now defying Washington pale in comparison to what's lurking ahead

Bloomberg View Two cheers for rating companies; a modest plan to lift housing p10

Global Economics

13

Big rescue, big doubts
Fears rise that Europe's latest scheme to help Greece is too small and full of holes to do the job

A plan to help African farmers may cost the U.S. jobs p14
Argentina's fuzzy math p15
India: Dodging the taxman p16
Scottish sea power p17
Tom Keene's EconoChat p17

Companies & Industries

21

Murdoch ties bind BSkyB
The buyout may be history, but Murdoch critics are looking at News Corp.'s big stake in the pay-TV giant

Why sand is in demand p23
Success may cost Ford p24
The world turns up its nose at U.S. chicken p25
Briefs p26
Charlie Rose/Alan Mulally p27

Politics & Policy

28

A tough spot for Norquist
The powerful antitax crusader's influence is in danger of slipping amid the debate on U.S. debt

The D.C. group that gives a new meaning to "corporate law" p30
The FAA has trouble firing bad air-traffic controllers p31
Georgians vs. aliens p32
The Vegas-wedding slump p33

Farm Aid
The UN's Josette Sheeran p14

Technology

35

Obsolescence insurance
Tech "buyback" plans may be a better deal for retailers like Best Buy than they are for consumers

Hey startups. Eric Schmidt wants to cut you a check p36
Baidu's music peace deal p37
Spot the fake Apple store p38
A picture's worth 1,000 ads p39
Malaria test by smartphone p40

Markets & Finance

43

Goldman's man in waiting
Gary Cohn's ties to trading culture and CEO Lloyd Blankfein may hurt his chances to succeed him

Apple keeps making Wall Street analysts look bad p45
Too big to fail, Russian-style p46
A bet on Europe's banks drags on top-performing funds p47
Bid & Ask: The week's deals p48

Deadlocked The Speaker and the President near the brink

Features

50

Fix This/Energy

O.K., smart guys, how would you solve the U.S.'s energy problems? The experts brainstorm p50

Hedged Out

After four decades, George Soros will no longer manage other people's money p58

The Edison of Silicon Valley

Steve Perlman's new technology promises to increase wireless capacity by a factor of 1,000 p62

The Playboy and the Ponzi Scheme

From small-town Indiana to parties at Hef's place. The life and fast times of the "Midwest Madoff" p68

Etc.

75

It's the Economy, Satan

May 21 came and went and we're still here. So is the Rapture trade, with help from the debt ceiling crisis

One True Thing A relatively guiltless summer snack: Goat's milk ice cream with figs p78

Multiple Choice With a succession crisis looming at News Corp., test your knowledge of the Murdochs in line to carry on the family business p79

Fashion This season's summer blazers take a step beyond seersucker p80

Sports Want your kid to be a football hero (or at least get a good scholarship)? Then make him a quarterback. Hundreds of pricey QB camps are ready to help p82

Hard Choices Gilt Groupe chair and former TV executive Susan Lyne recalls how getting fired by ABC led her to take the biggest risk of her career p84