

How the cover gets made

Opening Remarks The message from Davos: The U.S. is back. But it's not that simple 8

Bloomberg View Heed Greece's plea for debt relief • Tax reform to suit both parties 12

Global Economics

President Rouhani wants tax-exempt Iranian groups to pay up 14

The U.S. may need more churning in the job market 16

Kickback charges, money-laundering accusations, plea bargains—how far will the Petrobras scandal go? 16

A Columbia University economist's warm welcome in China 17

Japan's weak yen causes havoc for South Korea 18

How King Abdullah did—and didn't—transform Saudi Arabia 19

Companies/Industries

China's Tiny Times movies are product-placement nirvana 21

Another solution for runaway legal bills 23

What really makes Super Bowl Sunday special: A billion-plus chicken wings 23

With Evolve, Take-Two seeks to strike a decisive blow for online gaming 24

Briefs: McDonald's gets a new CEO; iPhone fever 25

Politics/Policy

The RNC and the Kochs vie for data supremacy 26

As same-sex marriage nears a Supreme Court date, advocates squabble over who gets to approach the bench 27

Internet giants are getting feistier about withholding private data 28

A Bill: A bigger write-off on student debt 29

Technology

Uber and Lyft have seen the future, and it has a crowded back seat 30

SAP takes a little inspiration from—surprise!—Xerox 32

CERN wants to build an even bigger atom smasher. Now it has to figure out how to pay for it 34

Innovation: Constant glucose monitoring, and not a needle in sight 35

Charlie Rose talks to Alibaba's Jack Ma 36

Markets/Finance

The euro catches a cold, and American art buyers have never felt better 39

South African thieves bribe their way into gold mines 40

Running a state bank in India, for $11.48 an hour 41

How strange is the bond market? Money managers are buying debt with negative yields 42

Bid/Ask: Post's cereal bowl grows; a lock of Lincoln's hair 43

Features

The Coming Kale War Whole Foods is finally ready to compete on price 44

Bomb Spree How police nabbed the gang that blew up British ATMs for fun and profit 50

Rehab Inc. Building a business empire by treating America's addicts 56

Etc.

With a new movie, SpongeBob keeps sopping up fans young and (admit it) old 63

Travel: The best winter resorts beckon with snow-rafting, glacier-climbing, and other non-skiing fun 66

Fashion: Fake a polished wardrobe with ease, thanks to the return of the dickey 68

Survey: Work harder, dress like everyone else, and other awful career advice, as recounted by six wise-up executives 69

The Critic: Framework and Ellen's Design Challenge turn furniture-building into a spectator sport 70

What I Wear to Work: Hetrick-Martin Institute's Darra Gordon goes for "business-smart but definitely edgy" 71

How Did I Get Here? Alexis Ohanian's long road from product demos at CompUSA to executive chair at Reddit 72

1 "The cover story is about the American economic recovery."

"We've recovered? That's great! On top of the world once again! We should celebrate!"

"The nature of the recovery is more complex than that, the first reason being..."

"USA! USA! USA!"

2 "Dust off that foam finger. Today we're proud to be American!"

3 "Now that all hardships have been eradicated, we can finally enjoy family time on our lawns!"

4 "Nothing says patriotism like aggressive children!"

5 "And if screaming isn't your thing, there's always the quietly noble eagle, on a motorcycle."

"This seems to best embody your enthusiasm."

