

Ben's Face-Lift
A new bill to thwart the fakes p88

Opening Remarks

6

The true lesson of the IRS scandal: America's campaign finance system is broken

Bloomberg View 3D printing will revolutionize industry. Embrace it p8

Global Economics

11

Investors abandon Egypt
Increasing crime and vigilantism are scaring businesses from taking a chance on the nation

Soviet-era entrepreneurs in Poland have staying power p12
China's shadow banking p13
Banks object to credit unions' hold on consumer debt p14
The week ahead p16

Companies & Industries

19

Syfy's wild marriage
Defiance, created by the network as a TV series and online game, is a hit with both audiences

KFC loses its touch in China p20
Back-seat luxe puts Mercedes in the driver's seat p22
Rebranding a Dutch king p24
Briefs: A bid to split Sony p25

Politics & Policy

27

All's not well
Wellness programs are supposed to cut costs and make employees healthier. It's not clear they do either

Canada is recruiting U.S. workers p28
California prisoners lose their jobs p30
Washington rushes to embrace Twitter p30

Technology

35

Memory factory
YesVideo rescues precious moments from VHS and old photos and sends them to the cloud

Alibaba takes on mobile OS p36
What old phones are worth p37
Zynga begets Zynga rivals p37
We built this city on sensors p38
Innovator: An app to customize smartphone services p40

Markets & Finance

43

Facebook's off year
Its stock is down 29 percent as investors worry about the shift to smartphones

For sale: Baltic condos with a Nazi past p44
Lehman haunts nonprofits p45
Japanese investment banking is sizzling p46
Bid & Ask: A $610,000 chat p48

Enterprise

51

Delicacies of the dorm
Campus Cooks' mission: To swap sloppy Joes for calamari and satay in frat houses and sororities

Quit-smoking apps get hot p52
Sample boxes stack up p53
North Dakota's shale boom boosts women's wages p54
New anti-sweatshop tools p56
Small to Big: Food trucks p58

Center stage Dimon at last year's Senate banking hearings p60

Features

60

Is JPMorgan Chase Too Big to Lead?

After a year of scandals, shareholders will soon decide if Jamie Dimon ought to continue as both chairman and CEO of the wildly profitable bank p60

Caterpillar's Lean, Mean Machine

Its gargantuan earthmovers symbolize American manufacturing might. The company also illustrates the growing gap between profits and wages p68

The American Who Bought Mongolia

The fast-growing outpost was a magnet for foreign investors until a government crackdown sent most fleeing. The bullish James Passin remains p74

Etc.

83

The Gay 70s, 80s, and 90s

Communities for LGBT seniors are flourishing as boomers reach retirement age

Fashion Bright pants may change your life—but keep the shirts simple p86
Cash To confound counterfeiters, the $100 bill gets a high-tech makeover p88
Lawsuits Costco sells a Tiffany ring that can cost as much as $40,000. Tiffany & Co. has something to say about that, in court p89
Conspicuous Consumption First prize in the Food Network's Giving You the Business is a fast-food outlet. Spoiler alert: The contestants are nice p90
Hard Choices America's Cup CEO Stephen Barclay on the push toward lighter, faster sailboats—and a tragedy at sea p92