

2 | From the Editor 4 | For the Record

The Brief

News from the U.S.
and around the world

5 | Little relief for the newly jobless

7 | China on edge
as Wuhan slowly
returns to life

8 | DIY face masks
and ventilators

10 | How Bernie
Sanders will still shape the race

12 | Plastic
waste arrives
in Antarctica's
wilderness

14 | TIME with ...
former FDA
commissioner
Dr. Scott Gottlieb

The View

Ideas, opinion,
innovations

17 | Joseph E.
Stiglitz on what markets
don't know

19 | Ian Bremmer
on learning from Asia

20 | Quarantine
advice from family therapists

21 | Passover
in isolation

Special Report: Heroes Of the Front Line

A tribute to the doctors, nurses, delivery drivers and other courageous workers around the world risking their health to preserve ours 30

One Week on Call

Seven days at the epicenter of the pandemic with paramedic and photographer Danny Kim By Karl Vick 22

Fear Behind the Mask

Flight crews worry they are helping the spread
By Vera Bergengruen 33

A 12-Hour Sprint

Paramedics like Alanna Badgley are the first line of defense in a global pandemic
By Charlotte Alter 36

The Architects

How the Army Corps of Engineers is constructing thousands of hospital beds around the U.S.
By W.J. Hennigan 43

Time Off

What to watch, read,
see and do

47 | Live-
streaming to stay sane

50 | TV: Cate
Blanchett as Mrs. America;
Julian Fellowes'
new miniseries,
Belgravia; swift adventure Run

52 | Movies:
Sergio, the last
years of a Brazilian diplomat; and
the power of
Les Misérables

54 | Books: Novels
by An Yu and
Julia Alvarez;
Quick Talk with Lois Lowry

56 | 6 Questions
for actor
Laura Linney

Coroner Michael
Fowler reports
for grim duty in Albany, Ga., on April 5

Photograph by Christopher
Morris—VII
for TIME