43 ▲ The Long Campaign: Biden bets that voters want unity

CORRECTION

In Brief (April 29) incorrectly stated that Heng Swee Keat was leaving Singapore's Ministry of Finance to become deputy prime minister. He will remain finance minister while assuming the deputy prime minister post. The item also erroneously stated he would be the first nonmember of the Lee family to lead the city-state; the first was Goh Chok Tong, who was prime minister from 1990 to 2004.
