

4 | Editor's Desk
6 | Conversation

BRIEFING

9 | Verbatim

10 | LightBox
Preparing for Carnival in Rio

12 | World
Europe's anti-austerity contingent; Cuba opens for business

14 | Nation
Same-sex marriage in Alabama; Jeb Bush's tech crisis; a snow surfeit in Boston

18 | Spotlight
The rising threat of private drones

20 | Tech
Using data to solve parking problems

22 | Milestones
Aid worker Kayla Mueller

COMMENTARY

24 | Tuned In
James Poniewozik on the departures of Brian Williams and Jon Stewart

29 | In the Arena
Joe Klein on the Saudi role in Islamic radicalism

ON THE COVER:
Photograph by Evan Kafka

Hillary buttons for sale in Davenport, Iowa, in anticipation of her 2016 presidential run. Photograph by Daniel Acker—The New York Times/Redux

FEATURES

30 Go Time for Hillary
Team Clinton is merging with Team Obama for the 2016 campaign by Michael Scherer

38 The Forgotten War
Conflict in Sudan rages on, even as the world looks to move on by Elizabeth Dias

44 Below the Line
Civil war rends Ukraine's coal-mining heartland Photographs by Jerome Sessini

52 The Clinic Next Door
CVS's plan to have its drugstores double as clinics by Eliza Gray

56 Food Fight
New chains are beefing up burgers and challenging fast-food stalwarts by Jack Dickey

64 Three Princes
The bonds between Prince Charles and his sons by Catherine Mayer

THE CULTURE

98 | Movies
Richard Corliss predicts the Oscars

100 | Book Excerpt
Investor turned activist Bill Browder recounts his fight against Russian oligarchs

104 | Books
Australian novelist Peter Carey's latest, Amnesia

105 | Television
A look back at Saturday Night Live as it turns 40; breakout hit Empire prompts fresh discussion of respectability politics

109 | The Amateur
Kristin van Ogtrop on the wearable tech she'd actually wear

110 | Pop Chart
Quick Talk with Christina Aguilera; interest-driven dating apps; s'mores Oreos

112 | 10 Questions
Activist Ai-jen Poo

Terrence Howard of Empire, page 106

