

2 | Conversation

BRIEFING

5 | Verbatim

6 | LightBox

Acrobats at the Youth Olympic Games in China

8 | World

ISIS loses Mosul Dam; the Pope tours Asia; Brazilian presidential candidate Marina Silva

10 | Nation

The immigration-court bottleneck; Rick Perry gets booked

14 | Education

Colleges take on sexual assault

16 | Spotlight

The ALS Ice Bucket Challenge

18 | Health

3-D mammograms; a pill to cure baldness

19 | Milestones

Farewell to Senator Jim Jeffords and announcer Don Pardo

COMMENTARY

20 | The Curious Capitalist

Rana Foroohar on why big banks prefer wealthy customers

ON THE COVER:

Photograph by Scott Olson—Getty Images

On Aug. 17, a protester rinses her eyes after being caught in tear gas on the streets of Ferguson, Mo. Photograph by Lucas Jackson

FEATURES

22 Tragedy in Ferguson

The shooting and its aftermath highlight how trust between communities and police breaks down around race
by David Von Drehle and Alex Altman

28 Viewpoints from Rand Paul, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Sybrina Fulton

30 Joe Klein on how to talk about race relations

32 Facing the Fallout

Three and a half years on, the Fukushima disaster has yet to change Japanese society
by Hannah Beech

40 Selfie Survival

Why babies are necessarily narcissistic—and why some grownups never grow out of it by Jeffrey Kluger

THE CULTURE

46 | Competitions

The scene at the 2014 World Dog Show in Helsinki

50 | Movies

Former Star Trek star George Takei has turned oversharing into activism

52 | Tuned In

In a slew of new post-apocalyptic dramas, the end of the world is not what it used to be

53 | Reviews

Haruki Murakami's latest novel; Ariana Grande's My Everything

54 | Books

Why the fantasy genre thrives in a tech-addled era

56 | Pop Chart

Quick Talk with Jeff Bridges; previewing the Emmys; Justin Bieber on ice

58 | The Awesome Column

Joel Stein defends his English degrees

60 | 10 Questions

Congressman Paul Ryan

Prize pooches, page 46