

2 | Editor's Desk

BRIEFING

11 | Verbatim

12 | LightBox

Dairy farmers protest in Brussels

14 | World

Unrest spreads in Congo; history's most famous exhumations

16 | Dispatch

The Taliban disrupt peace talks in Helmand province

18 | Health & Science

A breakthrough with dissolvable implants

23 | Milestones

Farewell to Dallas' Larry Hagman

COMMENTARY

24 | Worldview

Fareed Zakaria on the growing promise of the Middle East

26 | Murphy's Law

Mike Murphy on the GOP's cumbersome internal debate

28 | In the Arena

Joe Klein on Lincoln and the wisdom of earmarks

ON THE COVER:

Photograph taken in Cairo on Nov. 28 by Nadav Kander for TIME

Protesters gather near Cairo's Tahrir Square during a week of clashes with police. Photograph by Moises Saman—Magnum for TIME

FEATURES

30 Reluctant Pharaoh

Egypt's Mohamed Morsi gets bouquets abroad, brickbats at home. Meet the Middle East's man in the middle by Bobby Ghosh

38 Morsi in His Own Words

An interview with Egypt's President by Rick Stengel, Bobby Ghosh and Karl Vick

40 A Fear of Falling

Three principles to help the U.S. avoid the fiscal cliff
by Michael Grunwald

44 The Next E.L. James?

In the era of self-publishing, becoming a best-selling author is anyone's game
by Andrew Rice

THE CULTURE

54 | Pop Chart

The ultimate doomsday playlist; Angry Birds soda

56 | Food

How Napa chef Christopher Kostow is changing the culinary landscape

59 | Money

The stubborn antiquity of U.S. credit-card technology

60 | Travel

Disney's Magic Kingdom makeover

62 | Tuned In

Why the Elmo scandal is about parents, not kids

67 | The Awesome Column

Joel Stein on how curriculum reform could ruin his life

68 | 10 Questions

Artist Jeff Koons

