

THE LAST PRINT ISSUE

Looking back at the trials and triumphs of eight decades of Newsweek.

FEATURES

18

The Battle of Brand X

The epic competition between Newsweek and Time.

BY JIM KELLY AND EVAN THOMAS

22

'The First Rough Draft of History'

An oral history of the making of a magazine.

BY ANDREW ROMANO

34

Reporting at the Barricades

How a band of idealistic journalists changed the civil-rights movement.

BY MARK WHITAKER

44

When Women Said 'No'

The revolution changed America. It also rocked the newsroom.

BY ELEANOR CLIFT

52

Life on the Front Lines

After decades in the trenches, a correspondent recalls the perils of war.

BY CHRISTOPHER DICKEY

62

A Lost Generation

AIDS silenced the arts. A film critic on the toughest story of his career.

BY DAVID ANSEN

64

Monica

Backstage at the ultimate Washington drama.

BY MICHAEL ISIKOFF

70

That Day of Infamy

Covering 9/11, we found a renewed sense of mission.

BY DANIEL KLAIDMAN

5 A NEW CHAPTER by Tina Brown 9 PERSPECTIVES 10 PORTRAITS OF POWER by Jon Meacham

16 A LATE-NIGHT OFFER by Howard Kurtz 60 A FAMILY MATTER by Deldre Depke

78 HATS OFF 80 BY THE NUMBERS