

HOLDING ON TO THE STATUS QUO IN SAUDI ARABIA PAGE 54

'The American Federation of Teachers has waged a blistering campaign against Daniel Barnz and his movie.'

LLOYD GROVE PAGE 6

WINNING STYLE PAGE 64

A LIFE WE DIDN'T NEED TO LOSE PAGE 50

2 LETTERS & CONTRIBUTORS

NEWSBEAST

5 NATIONAL NOTEBOOK

Gearing up for the debates. By Michelle Cottle

6 PERSON OF INTEREST

Won't Back Down's director fends off a teachers' union assault. By Lloyd Grove

7 WORLD ON A PAGE

Ms. Precocious, M.P.; Walmart Singh. By Tunku Varadarajan

8 TECHNOLOGY

By Alex Klein

RELIGION

By David Sessions

CAVEAT EMPTOR

By Josh Dzieza

11 WORLD

Netanyahu is losing steam. By Dan Ephron

14 NEWS GALLERY

Kate's smile; child rioters; sugarplum couture.

20 COMPASS

All the Asian rage. By Niall Ferguson

22 POLITICS

Crash the fundraisers! By Peter Beinart

25 MEDIA

Can Vice get 20-somethings to watch the news? By Rebecca Dana

FEATURES

30 Welcome Back to the White House, Mr. President

With his first term behind him, Obama is poised to be as significant a president as Reagan. By Andrew Sullivan

38 American Women Have It Wrong

We have powerful jobs, well-run homes, and perfect children. But we're still not making it to the very top. There are things we can learn from the rest of the world. By Debora Spar

50 I'm Sorry, Steve Jobs

A leading oncologist on how we failed to save an icon and why we will lose many more lives if we do not give cancer research the funding it deserves. By Siddhartha Mukherjee

54 "I Pray My Daughters Have a Life Like Mine"

These words were spoken to the author by a devout Saudi matriarch. While some in the kingdom strive for new freedoms, others see change as a road to hell. By Karen Elliott House

OMNIVORE

61 BOOKS Tarun Tejpal dives into the seamy, dark side of India.

64 FASHION Standout trends from the runways of Burberry, Marchesa, and more.

65 FOOD A cookbook for amateur foragers.

66 WANT New Girl's Schmidt on toys for the ultra-vain.

68 MY FAVORITE MISTAKE

Damian Lewis of Homeland on having a split personality.

ON THE COVER

PHOTO ILLUSTRATION BY GLUEKIT