

WHEN THE DEADLIEST WAR INJURY IS SUICIDE PAGE 26

'Fotouh, who helped lead Egypt's Muslim Brotherhood for 25 years, is now a contender for the country's presidency.'

DAN EPHRON PAGE 8

WHICH HIGH SCHOOL IS NO. 1? PAGE 34

SPEKTOR SINGS PAGE 51

2 LETTERS & CONTRIBUTORS

4 PERISCOPE

Voice of America. By Tina Brown

NEWSBEAST

7 NATIONAL NOTEBOOK

The week the world went Facebook-crazy. By David Kirkpatrick

8 PERSON OF INTEREST

The irresistible Islamist who just may be Egypt's next president. By Dan Ephron

9 INTERNATIONAL

Don't cry for me, Brazil. By Tunku Varadarajan

11 SOCIAL DIARIES

Buy a ball team? Invest in art? Financial advice for Mark Zuckerberg. By Rebecca Dana

12 BUSINESS

By Rob Cox

TECH By Dan Lyons

SPORTS By Rob Cox

14 NEWS GALLERY

A Desperate Housewife on Cannes's red carpet.

16 POLITICS

Can Obama beat back the anti-incumbent fervor? By Paul Begala

17 COMPASS

With Europe on the brink, it's London's last waltz. By Niall Ferguson

18 AFTERMATH

Thank you, Rush Limbaugh! How Sandra Fluke turned a sexist slur into a feminist battle cry. By Michelle Cottle

FEATURES

20 The Mystery of the Multiverse

The latest developments in cosmology point toward the possibility that our universe is merely one of billions. By Brian Greene

26 "We pretend the vets don't even exist"

All across America veterans are committing suicide at unprecedented rates, but no one has been able to answer why. By Anthony Swofford

34 America's Best High Schools

Our report card on the 1,000 that make the grade. By Lauren Streib and Ian Yarett

40 Walter Cronkite Would Be Fired Today

Junkets. A liberal bias. An unconscionable shading of a story. A new biography reveals how much has changed in America's news culture. By Howard Kurtz

OMNIVORE

47 FILM How MIB3 almost spun off the rails.

51 MUSIC The spectacular Regina Spektor.

52 THEATER Julie Taymor fights back.

56 MY FAVORITE MISTAKE

Pianist Jeremy Denk on trying to have it all.

ON THE COVER

PHOTOGRAPH BY ESA-JPL-CALTECH-NASA