

'Americans were proud of the country's reputation as a meritocracy. It no longer is one.'

NIALL FERGUSON PAGE 42

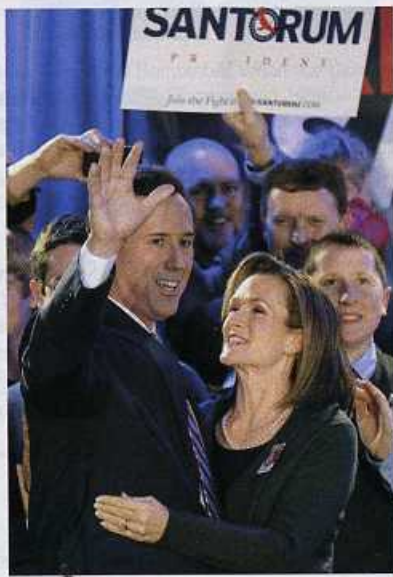

MURDOCH'S MAN BAILS PAGE 7

SEE SPOTS SELL PAGE 58

ESPN DOESN'T PLAY FAIR PAGE 36

MRS. SANTORUM'S SURPRISING PAST PAGE 28

NEWSBEAST

- 3 PERISCOPE By Tina Brown
Obama braces for the gunfight.
- 5 NOTEBOOK By David Frum
The secret of South Carolina.
- 6 INTERNATIONAL By Tunku
Varadarajan Gay spies; bankers' wives.
- 7 PERSON OF INTEREST
By Lloyd Grove A Murdoch turncoat:
Colin Myler
- 8 REFLECTIONS By Michael Daly
When all is taken away.
- 10 LIFE & LEISURE By Rebecca Dana
The minigarch next door.
- 12 MEDIA By Simon Schama
No downers in Downton.
- 15 SCIENCE By Casey Schwartz
- TECH By Dan Lyons
- DATABASE By Ben Crair
- C-SUITE By Joanne Lipman
- 18 GALLERY
A royal affair; Iran's nuclear defiance.
- 24 POLITICS By Paul Begala
Mitt Romney lunges rightward.
- 26 WORLD By Wole Soyinka
The butchers of Nigeria.
- 28 REPORTER AT LARGE
By Nancy Hass Before Karen met Rick.

FEATURES

- 30 The Long Game
How President Obama will outsmart the left, the right, and everyone else.
By Andrew Sullivan
- 36 Big. Bigger. Biggest.
Has ESPN gone too far for its own good? By Nick Summers
- 42 Rich America, Poor America
A conservative historian offers a solution to the country's economic divide.
By Niall Ferguson
- 48 Geert Wilders and His Dangerous Anti-Muslim Diatribes
Can somebody shut him up?
By Christopher Dickey

OMNIVORE

- 53 CULTURE Writer's block in Cairo.
- 57 FILM Hollywood's new tough girl.
- 58 ART Damien Hirst's global painting.
- 59 WANT Picks for the perfect home.
- 60 MY FAVORITE MISTAKE A real-estate mogul on being called stupid.

ON THE COVER:

Photograph by Olivier Douliery—Abaca.

FROM TOP: WEEGEE (ARTHAIR FELLING)—INTERNATIONAL CENTER OF PHOTOGRAPHY/GETTY IMAGES; ILLUSTRATION BY RICCARDO VECCHIO; TIMOTHY A. CLAY/AP/GETTY IMAGES; CHARLIE RIEDEL—AP; PAUL SPINELLI—AP