

ONE GIRL'S FIGHT AGAINST THE TALIBAN PAGE 38

'Almost from the moment D'Souza arrived on American shores, the firebrand lurked not far from the surface.'

DAVID SESSIONS PAGE 8

LEGITIMIZING WEED PAGE 26

UP NEXT FOR PACINO: GLENGARRY GLEN ROSS PAGE 44

2 PERISCOPE

A turn of the page as Newsweek embraces the digital future. By Tina Brown

4 LETTERS & CONTRIBUTORS

NEWSBEAST

7 NATIONAL NOTEBOOK

Why we keep finding new planets.

By Lawrence Krauss

8 PERSON OF INTEREST

The rise and fall of a right-wing star.

By David Sessions

9 WORLD ON A PAGE

Kinship in Kinshasa; Iran's cash crisis.

By Tunku Varadarajan

11 BUSINESS

By Dan Gross

SPORTS

By Sujay Kumar

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

By Mark Ellwood

14 NEWS GALLERY

Syria's proxy battleground.

17 GREEN RANKINGS

Our annual list of top companies carrying the eco-mantle. By Ian Yarett

20 COMPASS

Ground vs. air: which strategy will prevail on the electoral battlefield? By Niall Ferguson

21 POLITICS

It's (almost) morning in America.

By Michael Tomasky

22 REPORTER AT LARGE

The truth behind the Benghazi attack. By Jamie Dettmer, Christopher Dickey, and Eli Lake

FEATURES

26 High Times in America

Pot use in the United States is rising sharply, and voters may make it fully legal in two states this fall. Smart businessmen are banking on that happening. By Tony Dokoupil

32 The President Who Would Be King

The Obama power grab that could forever change the way Washington works.

By Andrew Romano and Daniel Klaidman

38 The Girl Who Changed Pakistan

An insider's look at 15-year-old Malala, who may finally turn the tide on extremism.

By Shehribano Taseer

44 "This Isn't All About Me, Is It?"

Broadway keeps pulling Al Pacino back in. By Lee Siegel

OMNIVORE

51 FILM A megawatt cast attempts to bring Cloud Atlas to life.

53 BOOKS Race, art, and crime seethe in Tom Wolfe's Miami.

54 MUSIC What makes Taylor Swift tick?

56 MY FAVORITE MISTAKE

Connie Britton of Nashville on getting yelled at by Ed Asner.

ON THE COVER

PHOTOGRAPH BY ANDREW HETHERINGTON FOR NEWSWEEK